Each volume contains entries for four months and a page is provided for each day of the year. Memorial entries may be viewed on each anniversary or by appointment at other times should the books be available.

The books are digitally produced and can viewed on-line at www.darlington.gov.uk/bor. Entries of between two and eight lines are permitted, with the first line bearing the name. In addition to Floral emblems, Heraldic illuminations such as Coats of Arms, Crests and Regimental Badges can form part of an entry of at least five lines.

Examples, for information, are shown and others are on display at the Crematorium Office. Staff are available at the office to help you compose suitable wording for the inscription or to select appropriate illustrations.

To ensure an entry is produced in time for display, the completed application must be received at the office no later than six months before the anniversary.

Should you wish to make an entry, please complete the application form provided and send to the Crematorium Office.

MINIATURE BOOKS AND MEMORIAL CARDS

Miniature Books and Memorial Cards are available as a personal keepsake and are very popular with those who cannot easily visit the Crematorium to see the original entry.

The Memorial cards are gilt edged and contain a colour photograph of the original Books of Remembrance with each card inscribed individually with the verse of your choice.

The Miniature Books are hand bound with a blue leather cover and gold blocked with a cross. Each page is inscribed by hand and can be returned when required for additional entries to be made.

Personal photographs can be added to either of the Memorials to create a unique commemoration of your loved one.

An application form is enclosed but further examples of both the Book and Card are on display at the Crematorium Office should you wish to call in.

TRIPTYCH

The Triptych is inspired by medieval art and is a tri-fold memorial folder with three panels which can include a hand written inscription, digital photographs or a memento wallet for small keepsakes.

The book is made from either high quality book cloth or smooth leather and comes in four different colours. An example of the Triptych can be seen at the Crematorium Office.

The display features of this memorial enable the final product to be viewed in its entirety showing your choice of verse and photographs making it a truly distinctive choice.

As this is a unique memorial, application should be made by calling our office or visiting us in order we can ensure your full requirements are met.
