Dear colleague,

There's just one week to go until our next webinar - 'Harnessing Data and Multi-Agency Partnerships To Tackle Serious Violence'.

SIGN UP NOW

I'll be joined by an esteemed panel, including experts from Xantura, Kent VRU, and Mutual Venture's Non-Executive Director, Prof Donna Hall to share their insights on enhancing multi-agency cooperation and leveraging data analytics for targeted interventions.

Join us for an insightful discussion on combatting serious violence through the power of collaboration and data as we explore the findings of the Home Office's evaluation of Violence Reduction Units (VRUs).

Register now and be at the forefront of driving change through data-driven partnerships.

REGISTER TODAY

There will be an opportunity to post questions during the webinar, but please also feel free to submit any questions before the session at david@mutualventures.co.uk. And if you can't make it, feel free to forward it to anyone in your organisation who would be interested.
