

Darlington Information, Advice & Support Service (IASS)

Darlington Information, Advice and Support Service (IASS) is recruiting volunteers to support parents of children with Special Educational Needs. The support volunteers can provide can vary and will be explained fully at training sessions that will be delivered before volunteers can commence working with Darlington Information, Advice and Support Service.

Darlington Information, Advice and Support Service is committed to:

- Providing accurate and impartial support and information to parent/carers whose children may have additional educational needs and young people who have or may have additional educational needs
- Ensuring that parents/carers views are heard and understood
- Making sure that parents/carers understand their roles, rights, and responsibilities
- Working with staff and governing bodies in schools and a range of other settings, as well as across the Local Authority and other agencies, to develop parent friendly policies and partnership working with parents, carers and young people.
