

This is the current footpath as on the definitive map, however as this is an arable field, It would be reasonable to have it diverted to the track to the south of this route.

