20. Where by a notice conspicuously displayed in the pleasure ground the Council set apart any part of the pleasure ground for the exclusive use of persons under the age of sixteen years, no person who has attained the age of sixteen years shall enter that part of the pleasure ground unless accompanying or in charge of a person under the age of sixteen years.

21. A person who has attained the age of fifteen years shall not use any swing or other apparatus in the pleasure ground which, by a notice affixed or set up near thereto, shall be set apart by the Council for the exclusive use of children under the age of fifteen years.

22. A person shall not in the pleasure ground hold or take part in any public meeting or deliver any public address; Provided that where any part of a pleasure ground has, by a notice exhibited in a conspicuous position in the pleasure ground, been set apart by the Council for the holding of public meetings, and
- (a) A person has given to the Chief Executive of the Council seven days prior notice in writing specifying the site, date, time and duration of the meeting or address and,
 - (b) He has not been notified by the Chief Executive of the Council that, at the date and time specified in his notice,
 - (i) The use of that site has been claimed by an earlier applicant or,
 - (ii) The use of the site for the holding of a meeting or the delivery of an address has been temporarily with-drawn from the public to prevent interference with any entertainment or other function held in the pleasure ground by, or in pursuance of, an agreement with the Council;

He may then hold a meeting or deliver an address at the site on the date and at the time and for the period of duration specified in the said notice.

23. Nothing in these byelaws shall be deemed to prohibit the delivery of a public address:
- (a) In the pleasure ground or in any part thereof during any time when, in pursuance of any statutory provision in that behalf, the Council close the pleasure ground or the part thereof as the case may be, to the public, or
 - (b) In connection with any entertainment or function held in any part of the pleasure ground set apart by the Council in pursuance of any statutory provision in that behalf.
24. Every person who shall offend against any of these byelaws shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding Twenty pounds.
25. Every person who shall infringe any byelaw for the regulation of the pleasure ground may be removed there from by any officer of the Council, or by an constable, in any one of the several cases hereinafter specified, that is to say :-
- (i) Where the infraction of the byelaw is committed within the view of such officer or constable, and the name and residence of the person infringing the byelaw are unknown to and cannot be readily ascertained by such officer or constable.
 - (ii) Where the infraction of the byelaw is committed within the view of such officer or constable, and, from the nature of such infraction or from any other fact of which such officer or constable may have knowledge, or of which he may be credibly informed, there may be reasonable ground for belief that the continuance in the pleasure ground of the person infringing the byelaw may result in another infraction of a byelaw, or that the removal of such person from the pleasure ground is otherwise necessary as a security for the proper use and regulation thereof.
