ELECTIVE HOME EDUCATION (EHE) IN DARLINGTON

Tuesday 19 November 2024

Tuesday 4 February 2025

1 - 2.30pm and 6 - 7.30pm via Microsoft Teams

This course is suitable for all governors

The number of young people registered as elective home education (EHE) is increasing across the country. This new course is an excellent opportunity for governors to learn more about the local picture in Darlington and what EHE means for young people, families, schools and the local authority. Delivered by Darlington Borough Council's EHE Advisor, governors have the chance to develop a greater understanding about the processes and responsibilities of all those involved and know what to check back at school about their EHE young people.
