

Principal Social Worker Network Lunchtime Learning Session

Being Culturally Competent

Thursday 26th March '25, 12pm – 1pm

An online innovation-sharing session for Local Authority professionals hosted by Northumberland Council.

The session will consider how to get 'comfortable with being uncomfortable' around the topic of race (predominantly). The facilitator will discuss ethnicity, microaggressions, equity v equality, intersectionality, and different models to support practice and reflection, whilst examining our own cultural assumptions.
