

The Application & Decision Process - Flowchart

The following flowchart illustrates the sequence of stages that an application passes through.

The white boxes represent the stages that are the responsibility of the applicant. The grey boxes represent processes carried out by the local authority. The black circular boxes indicate certain key stages, some of which require further action by the applicant before the application can progress further.

